THE AURICLE
OF HEX

The mystery unknown... Are you ready to unravel it?

ISHITA SRIVASTAVA

Six teenagers from a middle-class background with a normal life are chosen for a special task. Their life is going to take unexpected turns and they will end up exploring their rough side. From normal students to the special wizards' group of the magical world of Riverenzia, they struggle to know the truth, defeat Armada, the powerful king of Riverenzia and prove the statement – THE TRUTH SHALL PREVAIL. Will they be able to stay together in this long fight? What shocking truths will they uncover that will shake their roots? Will the six be able to defeat the kingdom of Riverenzia? Nothing here is normal, its magic! 'The Auricle of Hex' covers all aspects of a magic fiction novel with unexpected conclusions and adventures. It plays around the scenarios of action, love, friendship, heart breaks, relations and wise decisions.

The Auricle of Hex is a magic fiction written by a 15-year-old author, Ishita Srivastava. She belongs to the beautiful city of Sangam-Prayagraj but is originally from yet another holy city – Varanasi. This is her first work which she started writing a year ago but had to stop in between due to academics. Then she continued the incomplete story of her dreams to yield the magic fiction novel which you read today. She has written many poems in her free time and her hobbies include reading novels, writing, dancing and studying. She printed her imagination on paper under the name of this novel.
